

Design & Wine

- Premium quality
- Best possible closure
- Stands out from the crowd

DREI is the first German white wine that combines a clear innovative look with premium quality. DREI comes in a bottle with today's best possible closure for vivid and fresh white wines. The label stands out from the crowd and simply tells you the most important things you need to know.

So enjoy a good glass of great Riesling from the best Riesling growing area in the world.

Tasting notes

DREI it yourself!

We could tell you all sorts of things what this wine tastes like: juicy green apples, lime, even pineapple has been mentioned several times. Not to forget the smell of elderflower and rose petals.

We could also rave about its amazing texture and refreshing mouth-watering acidity.

But if you're serious about taste you probably want to judge for yourself.

Food recommendation

- Favorite dish
- Sauerkraut...
- Good friends

This is the most exciting part: Match DREI with your favorite dishes and tell us what you think.

We've enjoyed it with seafood barbeque and tried it of course with Sauerkraut!

It tastes even better if you share it with good friends.

Best Serving temperature

25-35°C / 77°-95°F outside the bottle

7°- 11°C / 45°-53°F inside the bottle

Winery

- First mentioned in 862 AD
- Award winning
- Handcrafted wines

Although DREI is a new idea, it's been in the 'planning stages' for almost 1200 years.

Behind us stands the award winning Weingut Staffelter Hof. With a winemaking tradition since 862, the winery stands for authentic handcrafted wines.
